“ Ms. Maxine, I already miss you. My most heartfelt sympathy goes to your children and grandchildren. I have great memories of times when I would ride my bike to your house and we would share recipes and; you were always great for sharing scripture and your wise and knowing comentary on those scriptures. I don't believe I ever went in your home that your bible wasn't on the dining table, open, probably to your Sunday School lesson. You certainly have left a legacy in your faithfulness to God's Word and his church. Love Nancy Gail

“ Maxine was a great source of blessing to me during a very difficult time at work. She encouraged me to stay the course with our Heavenly Father, seek His face, and she prayed for me, as well. She has left a lasting legacy of faithfulness to our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ in many, many lives! I'm sure she heard the words, "well done, My good and faithful servant" as she entered into His presence!

“ Dear Susan and family, My sympathy to you for the loss of your mother. I know from first hand experience that it is never easy no matter your mom's age or condition. But, I remember her well and she had values like my Mom's. They taught us well and forever will be with us. My thoughts and prayers are with you. Marsha

“ I know Max is with Jesus and happier than she has ever been. I hope all of us can learn to have the faith she had. Max was an inspiration because of her faith. She was a true Christian in every sense. My prayers are for her many children, grandchildren, and other family members. I regret very much not being to attend her funeral. All my best to my cousins and aunts. Peace be with us all.
