“ Dear Jennifer, Phil, Crystal, Art, and family,

I am traveling to GA, and just saw your post about your mother on fb. I am so sorry to read about your mother's passing. You all will be in Johns and my prayers this weekend.

A very nice write up and beautiful picture of your mother.

Our Heartfelt Sympathies,

Debbie and John Mathews

“ I'll miss Maxine's warmth and wonderful smile. I've already missed her presence (and Andrew's) at the cemetery picnics.

“ Crystal I am so happy that your Mom is a believer and is with her Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. But I do know you will miss her. So may prayers are for the God of Comfort to comfort you in this time. As your Mom behold him face to face, he is also with you holding your hand. Comfort and Love to your family from the Brattons.

“ May my dear friend Crystal and loving daughter of Mrs Wade find peace in this difficult time. May your family find strength and unity in faith and may our dear Lord comfort you all.

Sincerely,
Brenda

“ Aunt Maxine always gave big squishy hugs, they were great!! I imagine Uncle Andrew and her are dancing together in heaven and Gammie is playing a jig on the organ or piano as W.C. sits nearby. God bless you all through this loss... until we see her again ❤️
