“ Dearest Janie & Family, I've been praying for your family & for Mel during this journey you have all taken together. What an amazing guy, I'm sure he's spreading cheer in heaven with his contagious laugh! Janie, you were such a blessing to me and others in our church family, so thankful God allowed our paths to cross for several years. May you feel God's peace, presence and strength in the days ahead. “ The Utterback family surely will never be the same with the loss of Grandad. It has been an honor spending time and getting closer to him. He was a big inspiration to the family having a sense of pure love and endless humor. When my time comes, I hope to leave just as he did, with a smile. Being very busy, I didn't spend as much time with him as I wished. However, he came across my mind at least once a day and I hope he knew what he still meant to us considering our absence. Allison and I only were given one grandfather, and I can easily say that Grandad couldn't have been better. His family and church was his life. Farewell, Grandad. You'll never be forgotten. I love you so much.

“ I cannot get my grandfathers voice out of my head. Since the first time he saw me as a new born up until the other day when I said goodbye to him in the hospital, he never stopped making me laugh.
He always told us grand kids how proud he was of us. I felt real special for having Mel as my grandfather; I felt too lucky. Not every boy and girl could have had the grandfather I had (Nana, too!). Our inside jokes will stay with me forever, little things will always remind me of him. I love him and I will always miss him.

“ I am so sorry to hear of Mels passing. When I talked with him a while back he indicated that he was having some medical problems but at that time did not confide in me what they were. I think subconsciously I held back on calling him for a follow up because I just did not want to hear any bad news. Though we didn't get together after HS, I thought of him often and prayed for him lately, Hopefully we shall meet again and I know I will easily find him in a crowd as everyone will be laughing listening to him regale them with his humor. Good by Mel.....and God speed you to your rewards.

“ Wow!! Life is just too short!! We were so blessed to have spent a few days with you guys in January, 2014, never dreaming that it would be the last time we would see Mel & Janie together-- at least on earth! We enjoyed all the good times we were fortunate to spend with you and will miss Mel lots! When people as special as Mel leave this life, the loss is great!! But I know in heaven there is celebration!!

“ Jane You and your family have my deepest Sympathy. I loved this man so very much. I never before met anyone like him. He loved his Family, he loved to Laugh, he loved Life, he loved to Tease anyone around him, just to make us laugh, he loved People. He was a complete gentle man, a kind man, and if he was your friend, he would do anything for you. I remember leaving my checkbook home, one day, and in came a package that needed to be paid for. I had some money but not enough. He came over to me and said " Jo Jo, how much do you need ?" I emptied my pockets and he emptied his and together, we had enough to pay the bill, with just some change left in both our pockets. We laugh, and laugh. " What a Guy" He was the Best you would ever want to met. I'll never forget him. He will always have a space in my heart, that's the space He made when he took a part of me with him. I know the Angels in heavens are laughing so hard, their sides are splitting. I hope they are enjoying you as much as we did. Rest in Peace, my friend. Love ya

“ Janie, Even though you and Melvin were miles from most of us, we were appreciative of you taking the time to update us about Melvin and his illness. Each of us in our class no doubt has wonderful memories of Melvin. Melvin had such a pleasant and even personality. He was a joy to be around and will be missed by all his friends, especially the class of 1956. I am so sorry for you and your family as this is a great loss to each of you.
