“ I just discovered that one of my best friends on Facebook passed away on Sept. 8th. Mike Axon you were so kind, so funny, just a one in a million guy! You had plans to come up to go to the Ducktail Run with David and I in a few weeks. But, the last we talked we knew in are hearts that wouldn't happen, we had hope for next year and the Woodward Dream Cruise. We became friends because we both liked cars and cats. But, then we found out we were both plain crazy. Damn it why does God keep taking the goods one's! I can't and won't wish you back, because you are no longer in any pain. No longer having to fight the fight that you have been fighting for seven years. Tears are running down my cheeks because I didn't know that you had died and I feel so badly about this. You were too young to die, it isn't fair. You are now in Heaven with your dad and mom, parents that I know you dearly missed! Even though we never met, you were an awesome friend and I thank you for that...One day we will meet. Heaven gained an awesome Angel when you walked through those golden gates! May you Rest in Heaven my dear friend...God Bless You Mike...
