“ Dad, when it's my turn to come Home. Can we go for a Motorcycle ride on Heaven's road... Can we stop along the way, and sit on full thick grass and just talk... Can we spend time standing in the river fishing til we catch one... Can we get together and rock out on our guitars... When it's me turn to come Home be my friend forever... I Will Always and Forever Miss You, Love You Remember Dad...

You were so giving and loving to me and Grandma through the years. We could not have had the happy life we shared, without you, Cleo and our beautiful Great Grandchildrrn. We look forward to every day with you in iy. We were Blessed and so very, very proud of the man you had become. You were the Best grandson anyone could ask for.....Ever!!! I am at peace knowing that Grandma was there in Heaven waiting for you with open srms. Until we see each other again, REST PEACEFULLY MY BUDDY. LOVE YOU, GRANDPA XOXO*

“ Mike was just "Bedus"to us :-) He spent more time over here with Ray than I realized. He ALWAYS ALWAYS offered to help us anytime he saw us in the yard doing something. He was a fine father, husband and provider for the family that you'll created. He adored his children...But YOU were his life! He was SO excited that he and you finally had time together and that you were cleared to ride that bike with him. He ALWAYS talked about you to us...What was going on with your health through each step. I already told you of my last conversation with him about a week prior... It was of YOU, and of seeking to purchase a vehicle for Lindzie as with all that happened she accidentally did not get to receive one from you'll as he felt she should have and about you and later him going out to see that new granddaughter. He was ALWAYS thinking of his family!!!! I told you before that he would NEVER leave you intentionally...He loved you too much and would have worried to much about you to leave you in this world without him to be there, to care for you. What caused his death is irrelevant to us, we will ALWAYS know that it wasn't intentional. YOUR Mike loved YOU!!! Words seem so shallow, we are here for you if you have any need that we can help with... If you want or need a friend. I know this was suppose to be about words to Mike, for Mike...although it seems I have strayed from that, I have not. If it was me in your shoes, Ray would be grateful that someone took the time to let me know how much he loved me and that I could turn to them if needed. You and Mike would have done EVEN more for me and Ray ,I don't know what else to do while you are grieving... Like grieving could ever go away. Only the rawness leaves, but the hole remains because he isn't here to fill it. We love you, we love Mike and love your children. It still doesn't seem real. :(

Growing up was fun with you like when you taught, me how to skate, ride a motorcycle, and besides other activities.
