“ My sincere sympathy and prayers to the Blake family. I feel your loss in the passing of Mike. We were very good friends during our early years in Weston. Life got busy and we went different ways. I can always remember his saying "How is your Mother" Mike was always welcomed at our house and we had some great times together

“ We are so sorry about Mike's passing. We knew him for many years and always enjoyed his company. We were so excited when we renewed our friendship at the W.Va. picnic here in The Villages a few years ago and discovered he and Pat were our "neighbors". We will miss him at the Rocky & The Rollers dance this year. Our sincere condolences to Pat,
