“ Dear Aunt Millie, Michele, Denise, Vincent, Richard and Paul: My heartfelt condolences on the passing of a truly great guy. He could make you laugh with just a couple of soft spoken words and he always had a ready smile. He will truly be missed. I'm glad my kids got a chance to know him, too. He left his quiet mark there as well.
Love, Antoinette

“ To all of Mike's family, we don't have words to express how much we will miss him. His smile was contagious, his sense of humor endless and his conversation & stories always touched our hearts. We know that Mike didn't leave alone, for part of us went with him the day God called him home. God's blessings be with you.

“ Mrs. Davila, my deepest sympathies to you and all the family. I'll always remember your visits to Marshalltown and the happiness that enveloped you all. It takes very special people to have raised such a beautiful, generous, and caring family. Michele and Mike, as much as you are missed, it is a blessing that you were able to be near your father these past few years. This surely meant the world to he and your mother. We wish you peace and comfort through this difficult time. All our best, Bruce and Brenda Woodward

“ Dear Michele and family, My deepest sympathy to you at this time. May it ease the pain to know that your father is at peace, smiling down over his beloved family. Hold onto the years of memories he helped create, the years of love he bestowed on you. May you find comfort in the days ahead. Look to the skies at night--he is your brightest star! God Bless.
