“ Sixteen months have passed without you. My heart still aches for your warm embrace, your "bad boy" smile, your tender ways. Gone too soon my baby boy. So unfair but I knew it was time to go. So hard letting you go that day but no more aches, no more pain and no more cancer. I will love you and keep you in my heart forever. Your loving wife, Mary Kay

“ Six months have passed and it still feels like yesterday that you asked me to let you go. It was the most difficult and heart breaking decision of my life as it was yours. There will never be another you my sweet boy...you will always and forever be the love of my life. My soul mate...forever, I love you. Mary Kay

“ Mike will always be with Mary Kay. He'll laugh at her jokes, comfort her when times are tough, and cuss out anybody who gives her a hard time. He'll love her forever. He'll be watching to see if she's taking care of herself while she's spending her time taking care of others. As her life unfolds, he'll always be her biggest cheerleader. He'll be there in the sunshine of each new day.

“ Mary Kay, I wish there was something I could do or say to ease your pain and grief, but I know that is not possible. Please know that my thoughts and prayers are with you at this most difficult time. I hope you can find strength and happiness from the love you and Mike shared and the wonderful years you had together. You were his strength during his most difficult days and he loved you for everything you did to ensure his comfort to the very end. If there is anything I can do for you, please let me know. Love, Donna
