“ Mike Otterbourg was one of the first supervisors (TI) when I went to work at Southern Railway in 1965. He taught me a lot about working for a railroad. His lessons became more valuable through the years, especially in the Transportation Dept. I worked with his daughter, Jill, for a long time; and we became good friends. She inherited her father's talents both on a person and profession level. My heart goes out to Jill and her family for such a loss. Mike will always be missed
