“ Milagritos was born with a single task which was help other in need. She graduated from Ann Arbor University in Ann Arbor, Michigan with a Masters Degree in Social Work. She started as a teacher in PR and after she married Juan, she worked for Social Services in Red Oak, Iowa. Moving to Connecticut in 1977 she worked at the Institute of Living in Hartford, CT, moving on the Capitol Region Mental Health and later becoming a School Social Worker until her retirement in 2013. We moved to Mount Dora and five years later to Leesburg, Florida. She loved to travel, traveling to Europe when in the University of PR in Rio Piedras. In 2013 we bought a Motorhome and traveled all over this beautiful country. Traveling to Mount Rushmore, and saw all the parks in South Dakota and Wisconsin. Later travelled to New Orleans, San Antonio, Denver, and California to visit Juan’s brother later visiting many presidential libraries, traveling to San Francisco. Then of to Salt Lake City, went to concert performance by the Mormon Tabernacle Choir, Wao incredible voices. Visiting her Nephew Richard in Silverthorne, Colorado. Visiting more presidential libraries in Kansas, Missouri and Iowa. Going to Nashville, Tenn as well Memphis. Visiting Elvis Estate and Opryland. We had plans to visit Noah’s Encounter this year and also had tickets to fly to PR on Saturday, June 21st, but God had other plans on the same day and she flew up to the Lord. Rest in Peace my only love together 50 years.
