“ *Mary and family,
I still use the auto-harp in my Sunday School classes that Mildred used for children's choir at least thirty years ago. Fondly remember her children's choir musicals and the young ones in their white robes and red bows. She has definitely left her mark on many folks in Umatilla.
Miss seeing her at Trivia Night at Quarterdeck.*

“ Beloved aunt, talented organist, and all-around fun person. How often I thought of her, and how wonderful my childhood visits to her and Uncle Harold's home were.

God bless you Skip, Ann, Mary and Dave & Debbie.
