“ Muriel was a one in a million person. She was a loyal friend, a person who had a strong sense of right and wrong and a sense of fair play. She had a wonderful sense of humor and someone who accepted you as you were. No pretense around Muriel. She had a wonderful spirit of fun, too. And even if the miles kept us apart for several years now, I know that if she walked in the front door right now it would be as if we had never been apart.

Love you, Muriel.
