“ You know that I miss your presence, company and conversations very much. But now it comforts me to know that spiritually you are my angel friend who accompanies me and count on. The Little Angel Protector, wooden ornament that you gave me, I always carry it on my Golfcart, it reminds me you.

With all the things that happens in the country and in the world, Sal and I, wonder.. what would be Myla's reaction or her comments of this ... This is the way we keep you in mind Myla, we remember you always.

With lots of love,
Cecilia and Sal Farranto.

“ Myla, Dear and remembered friend, you know that I miss you very much, but it consoles me to know that you are enjoying the presence of God.

Excellent person, admirable woman, with many talents, simple but with a great vocation of service to others. You showed it in your volunteer work of many years, teaching English as a second language and preparing for citizenship to many people who came from different countries.

Thank you Myla, for your valuable time, understanding, support and always good disposition with each one of us, your students. We were very lucky to get to know you.

You represented a very important part of my life. For me, it was a blessing to have known you and to have you as a friend. You will be always in my prayers. Love you, Cecilia.

“ Dear Family,
How sad when we loose a loved one. Nothing and nobody can ease our sorrow.
I met Myla at the Computer Society. I looked for her lovely smile each meeting and missed her at the last meeting.
I grateful to have known her briefly.
Extending my heartfelt sympathies. Debi Weinert

“ Myla will be greatly missed by us all. She loved helping us when we were stuck with our knitting and she never tired of teaching us what she knew. Rest in Peace. I was so glad to have known you.
