“ Thanks to Fran for sharing this obituary. I am very sorry to learn that Myrtice has been received in the kingdom of heaven and left her earthly family and friends at such a young age. I always regarded her as a younger sister having grown up with her in the early days of her youth. I will always have wonderful memories of our lives together at Drake Point with her brothers.

“ MYRTICE was one of my dearest friends, always there for everyone with an open ear, willing to hear your problems, and sorrows. She always quoted scripture and let you know she cared and would be praying for you. What a wonderful christian lady, so dedicated to our LORD. I know without a doubt she is now with our LORD and SAVIOR JESUS. It was her desire for everyone to know JESUS as their SAVIOR, and I hope everyone who knew her will also come to except JESUS as their LORD and SAVIOR, since its the only way into HEAVEN. MYRTICE will be so greatly missed by me and others, but one day we will have a reunion in HEAVEN, PRAISE GOD. JEAN CHIPLEY
