Obituary of Nancy Marshall

Nancy W. Marshall, of 04128 Bair Ave., Fruitland Park, died February 19, 2014.

Mary Nancy Williams was born in Leesburg, FL May 14, 1926 to Herman Adrian and Etheline Terry Williams. She grew up in Leesburg, graduating from Leesburg High School in 1944 where she was a member of the Glee Club and the Honor Society.

She met Robert McLane Marshall, a Marine pilot in June of 1943 and married him December 26, 1944. They celebrated 48 years of marriage before his death in 1992.

During and after WW11 she traveled to Camp Le Juene, NC, Corpus Christie, TX, Livingston, TX, Ada, OK, Monticello, UT and Albuquerque, NM, before returning to Leesburg in 1956. She was a past president of Leesburg Garden Club and a volunteer at the hospital. She received her AA degree from LSCC in 1975. She was a lifetime member of Morrison United Methodist Church and sang in the choir for many years. She loved to garden, sew, knit, read, sing and play the piano.

Her life will be remembered by her children; Robert, Jr. (Pat), Kay, Sharon (Drew), David(Laurie) and Don (Velma) as well as her grandchildren; Nicholas, Kimberly and David II and two great grandchildren. In lieu of flowers for those who wish, memorials may be made to the Leesburg Heritage Society.

Memorial services for Nancy W. Marshall will be held at the Morrison United Methodist Church in Leesburg Friday February 28, 2014 at 2PM with a visitation to follow in the Juanita Gregg Center.

“ My sincere condolences to the entire Marshall family on the passing of Nancy. She was a wonderful aunt and I miss her dearly. When we were kids, she and Bob always made me and my brother Terry feel welcome in their home, a place bustling with energy, intelligence and kindness. My life is better for having been part of the family that she raised, and for that I'm grateful. Peace be with you, Nancy.
