“ Dear Dan. Please accept our most sincere condolences on Nancy's sudden passing. Having enjoyed a lovely lunch with you and Nancy shortly before we left for home three weeks ago, we were very shocked to get this dreadful news. When we moved to the neighborhood four years ago Nancy was the first person to come by and welcome us to the street. That certainly spoke to Nancy's warm and caring way and made us realize what a wonderful person she was. She chatted with us many mornings as she passed our house on her daily walk and we know as well that other neighbors enjoyed her friendly greetings as she walked her route. Nancy's friendly smile and beautiful personality have enriched us all. As newcomers to the neighborhood we feel very fortunate to have known her. We will miss her. Although we are hundreds of miles away right now, our thoughts and prayers are with you, your family and friends at this very sad time. God Bless Alice and Gerry
