“ To Nancy's family, especially to Cheryl Rode and Ed - who are my co-workers. This is one of my favorite prayers that sums up the loss of a loved one - I hope it helps you in your mourning of your beloved mother. Celebrate the fact that she is no longer suffering and that you have another angel watching over you to guide you through the rest of your earthly journey. "Death is noting at all. I have slipped away into the next room. I am I, and you are you. Whatever we were to each other, that we are still. Call me by my old familiar name, speak to me in the easy way which you always used Put no difference in your tone, wear no forced air of solemnity or sorrow. Laugh as we always laughed, at the little jokes we enjoyed together. Pray, smile, think of me, pray for me. Let my name be the household word that it always was. Let it be spoken without effect, whitout a trace fo shadow on it. Life means all that it ever meant, it is the same as it ever was, there is an unbroken continuity. What is death but a negligible accident? Why should I be out of mind because I am out of sight? I am waiting for you for an interval, somewhere near, just around the corner." Canon Henry Scott Holland - 1847-1918. Much love and prayers, Francine Carstensen
