“ We will miss Nick greatly. He was always so upbeat and he sang like an angel! Believe me, his spirit will live on in The Villages for a long time to come. Hope he's up there singing up a storm. Much Love, and our deepest sympathy to his whole family. Ken and Judie Dahlquist

“ It was an extreme pleasure to have known and worked with Nick. A man who lived life to the fullest. An incredible singing talent who could make all the ladies swoon (and he knew it). A Wednesday night at Garvino's was not complete without Nick singing. We will miss his constant smile and his signature shrug of his shoulder when he crooned those great songs. Nick has left permanent memories with all of us and will often be spoken of in the highest regard. God bless Heaven's newest angel.

“ To the DiBenedetto Family: I was a friend of Nic's for the last 12 years. I met him through Eleanor Gray at bingo at the Disabled American Veterans Chapter 87. We spent many wonderful hours singing and conversing at his home. He will be truly missed. He now sings with the angels.
