

Nicholas J. Felice

April 6, 1925 - November 30, 2018

Born into time April 6, 1925

Born into Eternity November 30, 2018

OCEANPORT- Nicholas 'Nick' Joseph Felice, 93, died unexpectedly November 30, 2018 at his winter home in Florida. He was born April 6, 1925 in Brooklyn NY, the son of late John and Rose Felice. He was the sole survivor of five siblings.

Following high school Nick began his life long career working as a pressman for the New York newspapers. On October 11, 1953, he married Julianne P. Riso and they settled in Brooklyn, NY before moving to Ridgewood NJ and finally to Oceanport NJ. They celebrated 65 years of marriage in October. Nick was a lifetime member of both the Italian American Association of the Township of Ocean and the Red Bank Elks Lodge. He was also a member of the Old Guard of Long Branch, NJ. He enjoyed reading, fishing, telling jokes and the racetrack.

In addition to his parents, he was predeceased by his brothers, Pete and Albert, and his sisters, Mary and Rose. Surviving, in addition to his wife Julianne (Riso) Felice, are his daughter, Denise (Felice) Casserly and her husband, Mike, of Maplewood, NJ; his daughter, Patrice (Felice) Albano and her husband, Jim, of Ridgewood, NJ; his son, John Felice and wife, Clace, of Brick, NJ; four grandchildren James Albano, Joseph Albano, Harrison Felice and Ashley Felice; many nieces and nephews.

Nick will be honored at a mass held at St. Timothy RC Church, Lady Lake, FL.on Wednesday, December 12, 2018 at 8:30 a.m. A Celebration of Life will be held in New Jersey at a future date. Those who wish to remember Nick in a special way may send gifts in his memory to the Arthritis Foundation P.O. Box 96280 Washington, DC 20077-7491 or online at www.ArthritisFoundation.org.