“ Don't try to keep your tears in check. 'If there were no love, there'd be no grief.' Zig Ziglar. I will miss you dear Noble because the time we had together was so short. Bless all the family as we keep you always in our hearts, never to be forgotten. I love you, Noble! Check on Bill for me, please!

“ I am grateful I was able to finally meet my uncle; although robbed of his presence throughout my life. The three times I had the pleasure of his company really brought home how much I missed growing up without knowing my uncle, aunt, and cousins. My thoughts and prayers are with his family during this difficult time.
