

Norma P. Barrows

August 14, 1924 - May 18, 2018

Norma P Barrows, 93, passed away on May18, 2018 in Oakland, FL.

She is predeceased by her husband, Robert P Barrows, and survived by her daughters Joanne Barrows (Kevin Beauregard) and Nancy Canducci (John Canducci), and her grandchildren Emma, Katherine and John.

Norma Perkins was born in Meriden, Connecticut and spent her childhood there. She received a Bachelors degree in Education from Lesley College and a Masters degree in Education from St. Josephs College.

In 1954, she married the love of her life, Robert Barrows. She worked in teaching all of her career. After moving back to Meriden in midlife, she became the director of the Meriden Day Care Center.

Norma moved to Scottish Highlands in Leesburg Florida in 1986. She was very active in the community and served on the Scottish Highlands kitchen committee, Tavares Women's club and at the Union Congregational Church. In 2014 she and her husband moved to the Clermont area to be closer to their daughter.

Norma was a genial and caring woman who dedicated her life to service to the community. As she struggled with Alzheimer's in her final years, she remained selfless and optimistic to the end of her life.

A memorial service will be held on Sunday, June 17th at noon at the Union Congregational Church of Tavares.

“ Joanne and Nancy,

I am so sorry to hear about the loss of your mom, Norma. She was a lovely woman who I met in several years ago at the Benton House. She was a devoted wife. I remember her taking care of your dad. I enjoyed playing games with her. It was a pleasure to have known her, She lived a long life.

Cheryl Songer shared your mom's obituary. I have been away several weeks up north. I hope to see you at the memorial service. Blessing to you and your family. She will be missed,

“ We remember Norma so very dearly from her time at Union Congregational. Always such a sweet lady and always so ready to help, especially in the kitchen, where sometimes people aren't so willing. We have missed her these past years, but rejoice with you in knowing she is with her Lord.

Our condolences, Ann and Ame
