

Norman H. Smith

April 15, 2016

Obituary of Norman Smith

On April 15, 2016 Norman Smith passed away at 98 years of age. His loving wife Zula of 71 years was by his side at the Bridgewater in Waterman Village, Mount Dora, FL. Norman was a officer and a pilot during WWII. After the war, he rose to the rank of Lieutenant Colonel and he became the Executive Academic Officer at the Air Force Academy. Subsequently, Norman earned a Doctorate Degree in Mathematics from the University of Colorado. He was involved in starting the University of South Florida, and he helped develop the community college system in Pennsylvania. After his retirement they moved to Leesburg and later to Mount Dora. During his retirement, Norman was a loving husband and an honorable citizen in his community.

Norman is survived by his children, Sandra (Gerald) and Wayne (Kay), six grandchildren and nine great grandchildren. Services will be planned at a future date and time which will be provided at that time.

Tribute Wall

LF

“ I am so sorry for your loss, I feel so Blessed to have known Norman and had the privet edge to witness such beautiful Love between Norman and Zula..I know he is well in Heaven with our Lord Jesus... ♡ Love to you Zula....

Lori Fawcett - April 28, 2016 at 12:00 AM

CR

“ My heart goes out to Zula during this time of sorrow. I don't know of a couple more dedicated to each other than Norm & Zula, so I know she will feel his loss greatly. Norm was a gentle soul & gentle man & will be greatly missed.

Cheryl Richie - April 19, 2016 at 12:00 AM