“ I have many fond memories of Oreste. I'm glad I got to know him personally and through his biography. Oreste seized life for all it was worth and life more in one life than most of us could have with two lifetimes. You will be missed, my friend! He was always proud of his family, and my condolences go out to them.

“ Jack and I met Oreste and Ida soon after we moved to the Plantation in Jan of 1995. Oreste and Jack worked out at the gym together way back when it was located in the Manor. We enjoyed both of them and particularly the book that Oreste wrote about his life. He was always a gentleman and a scholar. May he rest in peace.

“ Dear Ida....how our hearts grieve and we are so saddened to hear of Oreste's death. Really it is a homegoing for Oreste to go to the Lord and Savior he served and followed. The Canal marble "God is Love" plaques that hang in both the Woodlynnne and Sicklerville United Methodist Churches is a tribute to God's love poured out for us, to Oreste's love of the Lord and the love you had for one another. We have thought of you often after you left Sicklerville and cherished our time there with you both. Our prayers are with you and for you as you say goodbye to a great man and a great Christian witness, as well as a wonderful husband and father. Our lives have intertwined over the many years since 1971 when I first met you. Ours is God's promise that one day we shall meet again "when we all get to heaven, what a day of rejoicing that will be." May Jesus bless you and keep you and make His face to shine upon you and grant you His peace.
