

Oscar William Freeman Jr.

May 24, 1969 - April 21, 2026

Oscar William Freeman, Jr., a lifelong resident of Leesburg, Florida, passed away on April 21, 2026, at the age of 56. Born on May 24, 1969 to Oscar William and Marcile Mealor Freeman. Oscar was a dedicated and hardworking concrete and tile installer known for his strength and his heart that never stopped loving.

Oscar is survived by his beloved children, Kamela Davis and Eden Davis. He leaves behind a large and loving family, including his six sisters: Patricia Torrance, Linda Brissey, Carole Freeman, Donna Freeman Zimmerman, Wanda Jacobs, and Judy Kyle; and his three brothers: Steve Freeman, John Freeman, and Verlon Freeman.

Known for his enduring spirit and the joy he brought to those around him, Oscar's family finds comfort in knowing he is finally at peace and "forever free."

A Celebration of Life gathering will be held to honor Oscar's memory and share the many stories he left behind. Friends and family are invited to attend a casual "Open House" to share in food, fellowship, and memories.

“ I am so sorry for the loss of "young" Oscar. I have not seen him for many years. Or any of y'all. I have happy memories of your dad ("old" Oscar) and you ladies. Losing a sibling is awful. I can't imagine. I can just send you love and hopefully good memories.
