“ I just read the obituary for Mrs Griner and wanted to say that I am sorry for your loss. In the bible at 2 Corinthians 1:3, 4 God promises to tenderly comfort those who sincerely look for him. May Jehovah God prove to be that comfort, encouragement and support for you at this sad time. Please accept my prayers and condolences.

“ Pat was my high school best friend. We were at Ferrum together along with Alice. I will always think of Pat as a wonderful friend and Christian woman. I was sorry to read the obituary in her home town newspaper yesterday.

“ Pat was a fighter and tried hard to keep busy as long as she could. She always had a kind word no matter the circumstances. Her talent was inventive and creative. We all will miss her smiling face.

“ I want the family to know how very special your mom and dad were to me. It was such a pleasure to reconnect to Pat a few years back and to get to be with her for a little while. I will always remember the good times we all had, even though I was suppose to be the babysitter.HA! Thank you Susan for keeping in touch and letting me know about your mother. I would love to here from you all again, maybe even see you. My thoughts and prayers are with you all. May God bless you with the peace and comfort only he can provide. In Christ's love, Sharon
