“ My Mom was my mentor and best friend. She was the strongest person I have ever known and went through alot in her life to become that strong person, good and bad. My Mom stood by my side through every part of my life especially the most painful and hardest times . She never gave up on me and showed me what unconditional love was. She made sure she planted the seed so I would know who my heavenly Father and Jesus are, this was her greatest accomplishment and she did this with all of her children and grandchildren. I know that I will be reunited with her when my heavenly Father calls me home. I miss you deeply Mommy, love you and I will carry you in my heart always. This is not goodbye but farewell until I am back in your Motherly embrace-Julie “ Rest peacefully my precious mother in heart. I was abandoned by my real mother and abused by my stepmother. Patsy was the only mother that I ever knew during the past 35 years. She treated me with love, kindness, and like a daughter. She was a true blessing in my life and the best mammaw my daughter Allison could ever ask for!
