

Patrick Cusack

June 25, 2012

Obituary of Patrick Cusack

Patrick L. Cusack, age 79, The Villages, FL died Monday, June 25, 2012 in Washington State

He was born in Brooklyn, N.Y. He served in the Korean conflict and was Honorably Discharged. Subsequently, he retired from the New York City Police Dept. and moved to Houston, Texas where he served as a U.S. Marshall.

He was a resident of Rio Ranchero North for 15 years and a parishioner of St. Timothy's Catholic Church. He was an active member of the Irish Club, and the Police and Firemen's Club. He also enjoyed bowling, billiards and playing cards. One of his hobbies was creating artwork with stain glass. He belonged to the American Legion for many years and is a Life Member of the Knights of Columbus.

He is survived by his wife, Helen, three children, Patrick, Thomas, and Laura, 5 grandchildren and 1 great grandchild. A memorial service to celebrate his life will be held in November.

Services

A memorial service to celebrate his life will be held in November.

Tribute Wall

“ Patrick Cusack

October 01, 2014 at 12:00 AM