“ Patrick came to mine and his brother's wedding. He has always has been a friend and gentleman. One year he came out with his wife and child for a visit and we all had much fun. When my husband had a stroke he and Wife Vicki fly out. Made my husband so happy that he cried. God bless him. He must be in heaven already. Lov

“ One of my earliest memories was learning to play Poker when I was 4 from Uncle Pat. He was a good teacher so I learned pretty quickly. After I was confident I knew the rules Uncle Pat dealt me a hand. To my astonishment I got 4 aces. I couldn't believe my good luck. I always told people how I got 4 aces whenever I played poker throughout my life. However, once I entered my 20s I came to believe that he set me up with my hand. When he came to my wedding I introduced him to some of my poker playing friends and told them about how I got my 4 aces. I said my qualifying story :“Uncle Pat, I think you set me up”. He insisted that he did not and described in detail how I got 4 aces and how he could not believe how this could have happend.....I think I will choose to believe in honor of Uncle Pat that I did get my 4 aces.

“ When I was in 5th grade I was told to write a story about "My Most Unforgettable Character". I wrote about My Uncle Pat. He always did the greatest card tricks and even though a magician is not supposed to reveal his secrets he showed me how he did some of them. I practiced them for years. When I was older (in my 40s) I asked him if we would do his magic tricks again. To my delight he did and they still held the same magic that they did when I was a child. He was very special.

“ My Uncle Pat was always a calm, level-headed man, who was fun to be around, and had a good sense of humor. He worked hard to be a good husband and father. I enjoyed the times I was able to be with him when I was a younger and had time to visit when he was with my grandparents in Springfield, Missouri. I remember when I was about five years old, when he was in the Air Force and had been in Korea. I had not seen much of him, but when he came to visit, he brought me a bomber jacket with a dragon emblem and "Korea" emblazoned on the back. I loved the jacket, and that he thought of me, and had brought it all the way from Korea to give to me. I would have liked to have been able to spend more time with him, which was made more difficult with him being in Florida and me in California. I believe I will see him again, and for now, may he rest in peace.

“ Condolences to the Kennedy family. May the God of Comfort bring you solace at this sad time. 2 Corinthians 1:3,4. Soon, he will eliminate death and resurrect our loved ones back to life on earth. (Isaiah 25:8; Job 14:14,15). Your family is in our thoughts.
