Obituary of Paul Apt

Mr. Paul J. Apt, 90, longtime resident of Dahlonega, and then of New Smyrna Beach, and finally Webster, died April 27, 2014, in Webster, Fla. Born in Chicago, IL, Paul was the son of Mr. & Mrs. Oscar C. Apt. He was married to the late Dorothy McClure Apt for 55 years. Paul was a Miami Edison graduate. He was a US Navy Veteran who served as an Aviation Radioman during World War II. Upon discharge from the Navy, Paul earned a B.A. Degree in Business and underwent undergraduate work at the University of Miami. He was Comptroller at the U. of M., retired to Dahlonega, later returning to Central Florida.

Paul enjoyed traveling, camping, walking on the beach, bicycling, cars, and motorcycles. He collected knives and liked carving wood. He loved dogs.

Paul is survived by his daughter, Jan Marie Crafton, of Bushnell, FL; and sons, David Paul Apt of Gainesville, and Carl Wesley Apt of Flowery Branch, GA; grandchildren, Lance Alan Wisely, Jamie Marie Bertolomi, and Paul Cody Apt.
