“My sincere condolences to the family. Words are never enough to take away the pain; but we can find comfort in God's promises. In Acts 24:15 Jehovah God promises to soon bring our loved ones back to life again by means of a resurrection. Soon we will get to enjoy wonderful times again with our loved ones on earth and be free from all suffering and death forever- Psalms 37:29 and Revelation 21:3-5. I hope that the family can find hope and comfort in these promises; and may Jehovah God provide all of you with strength and inner peace during this difficult time. The family will be in my prayers.

“ I have enjoyed seeing all of the pictures of your mom and dad on facebook these past few days. When I try to picture your dad in my mind he is always smiling, and living on Lillie St. I don't remember anger, or impatience, or unhappiness when I think of him. One of my clearest memories is the time we all went to the GE company store and bought those SUPER COOL lunch box sized transistor radios. Your dad was the most amazing dad on the planet that day. Rest in Peace, Paul. I hope they have those cool radios in Heaven. Love and Peace to all of you.
