“ Deb, It has been a long time since we have seen each other but I so fondly remember you and Paul. You were the love of his life and he yours. It was obvious to the world that you were each others world and that it was true love that you had for each other. I do believe Paul will be up there Riding again - just waiting for his love to join him when it's time and together again you will be. Much love and lots of hugs being sent to you from old friends that never forgot how wonderful you are. Kris & John
