

Paul J. Hehn

August 25, 1938 - December 15, 2017

Paul J. Hehn, age 79 of the Villages, Florida, went to be with his heavenly Father on Friday, December 15, 2017, surrounded by his family at Shands Hospital in Gainesville, Florida. He was born in Reading, PA on August 25, 1938.

After graduating from West Reading High School, West Reading, PA, Paul served in the U.S. Navy for four years as a radioman. Upon honorable discharge from the Navy, he attended Kutztown University, Kutztown, PA and graduated with a B.S. in Elementary Education. He later earned a Master's degree in Guidance and Counseling. Paul served as a teacher and guidance counselor for thirty years in the Reading School District, until his retirement. After moving to the Villages, Paul started his second "career" in softball, playing various positions for thirteen different teams. When not on the diamond he could be found playing golf, flying his R.C. airplane with his grandson, Jeffrey, or planning special excursions with his Pennsylvania and Maryland grandchildren. He was devoted to his Catholic faith; serving as a lector for many years.

Paul is survived by his beloved wife of 53 years, Anita Hehn (Allgoever); three children, Paul Hehn and his wife, Debra of Audubon, PA; Karen and her husband, Theodore Murphy, Jr. of Mount Airy, MD; Valerie Bisconti of The Villages; six grandchildren, Jeffery Bisconti, Paul Hehn, Savannah Hehn, Justin Hehn, Luke Murphy, and Matthew Murphy; three brothers Joseph Hehn of Hellertown, PA, Robert Hehn of Audubon, PA, James Hehn of Reading, PA and one sister, Dolores Hehn of Shillington, PA. He was preceded in death by his parents, Joseph Hehn and Margaret (Kocan).

A mass of celebration will take place at St. Timothy Catholic Church, Lady Lake, FL, date and time To Be Determined. In lieu of flowers, Mass cards would be appreciated.
