“ Paul was the second step dad to me, but he was much more. He brought a smile, laugh, and joy to everything we did together. Going to special Church Services with him, he made me feel like I was special. Bowling tournaments, dinners, and shopping trips all became a joyful event. Paul made me feel like his daughter, he was special. Friday night dances were always a hoot, he danced the night away! The band did not entertain us he did, and I loved our special dances that we had. Even thou he hated line dancing, he did try to learn the electric slide! Yes these are great memories and I will cherish them. I will miss you - You are at peace:
