“ I didn't know Pete for a long time, but the few years that I new him I loved his personality. He always smiled was funny, warm hearted and loving. He will be missed, but he has gone to a better world. The Lord will shelter him under his wing and he will send his strength and love to Lupe to continue in this hard world we live in. He was a handsome man, a wonderful husband, father, friend and neighbor. May your eternal journey be surrounded by angels and all your love ones. We will never forget you, our prayers will always be with you.
