

Peggy A McGowan

August 25, 1950 - March 9, 2025

Peggy A McGowan, a beacon of selflessness, illuminated the lives of everyone she touched, leaving an eternal impact.

Born Peggy A. Carver on August 25, 1950, in Tampa, FL, calling Seffner, FL her home. Peggy passed away unexpectedly on March 9, 2025, at the age of 74. As a loving wife, mother, grandmother, and friend of Lake Panasoffkee, FL, Peggy's boundless love and kindness transformed countless lives. Her bakery, Herb and Peg's, in Bushnell, FL, was a haven of warmth and generosity. In retirement, Peggy's baking, volunteering, and neighborhood outreach continued to uplift her community. Her family, especially, her grandchildren, were the recipients of her infinite love.

Peggy is survived by two brothers, Harold and Lamar (Joyce) Carver, her children Susan (Todd) Nowell and Herbert John (Heather) McGowan Jr., and three grandchildren, Zachary, Tyler, and Ella. Though her passing is a profound loss, Peggy's reunion with her beloved husband Herbert John McGowan Sr., is a testament to the transformative power of love.

The family is planning a celebration of life sometime in May.
