“ Our prayers are with all of you at this time. I remember Perry as a quiet classmate and have wished many times he and Linda would have joined his classmates during a class reunion so we could have gotten to know you again. Good Bless you all.

“ I was sad to learn that Perry had passed away. We worked many years together at the Daily Commercial. We would talk about our families, and I remember him talking about his son who worked at the Leesburg airport and daughter who worked at a bank. You have my condolences on your loss. May God comfort you at this time.
