

Peter C. Andres

March 7, 1954 - January 26, 2025

Peter C. Andres marched into his mansion in Heaven. "I shall behold Your face in righteousness. When I awake, I shall be satisfied in Your likeness."
(Psalm 17:15)

His greatest joys were his family and friends, softball, life in The Villages, and world travel. Peter fulfilled an adventure of a lifetime on a climb up Mt. Kilimanjaro.

Peter is survived by his wife of 48 years, Ruby and their two children, Trisha and Justin.

The Celebration of Life will be held on Friday, March 7, 2025 from 1:00pm to 2:30pm at New Life Christian Church, 4701 E County Rd 462, Wildwood, FL 34785.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to his favorite cause, Alzheimer's Association. Tribute page: <http://act.alz.org/goto/peterandres>

“ Had the pleasure of being Pete's teammate three different times over the years in Rec Division 2 and Arena league softball. Pete was the triple threat: he could hit, he could field and was fast on the basepaths. He cared about you as a teammate and always kept a positive attitude. Pete was respected by all and will be missed. Godspeed my friend.

I knew Peter over 30 years. When he was living on Long Island, he played tennis with us over decades and excelled in our group. He was adventurous sportsman that we admire in our tennis group. He always helps his friends in need. Our deepest sympathies to Ruby, Trisha and Justin. May he rest in peace. Dula & Indira Amarasinghe
