Obituary of PFC Michael Mahr

PFC Michael C. Mahr, 26, of Bushnell, Florida, passed away on Tuesday, March 22, 2011 serving our country. He was born August 31, 1984 in Orlando, Florida. He was a loving husband, father, son, and bubby. His comrades called him "Superman" because he was fearless. He would do anything for anyone. He always put others ahead of himself. He would always stay late to work on the truck and tell his comrades to go ahead and he would take care of their RG. Michael was a very proud soldier and loved the Army. He never had a moment of regret for the choice he made to serve his country. He loved the Army and everyone he knew dearly. Godspeed Honey, we all love and miss you. You will always be in our hearts, Hooah!

He is survived by his wife, Stephanie Mahr of Kannapolis, NC; son, Jadon Michael Mahr of Kannapolis, NC; step-sons, Caleb Bapp of Richford, VT, and Scott Bapp of Richford, VT; mother, Kimberly Albury of Homosassa, FL; step-father, James Albury of Homosassa, FL; step-grandparents, David and Kathy Santo of Homosassa, FL; maternal grandparents, Davis and Vicki Chaffee of Lochloosa, FL; maternal grandfather, John Mahr of Sandusky, OH; step grandmother, Norma Albury of Homosassa, FL; maternal great-grandfather, Robert Lanum of Edgewater, FL; brothers, Matt Mahr of Eustis, FL, Mark

Sallee of Loveland, CO, and James Albury of Kernersville, NC; sisters, Melanie Halle of Lake Panasoffkee, FL, Amber Albury of Watertown, NY, and Tiffanie Overman of Trinity, NC.
