“ Not sure where to begin, I still just can't believe you are gone . Casting for mullet @ Matanzas, hunting and tearing up and down the roads at Pedro, fishing at Cat Lake, all the wonderful times in Spartanburg and Green Creek and on the Oysterman. We lived a charmed life and I always thought if it ended tomorrow we had done it all! Now I am only sad for your beautiful children but I know an angel will be forever looking over them. Bless you and keep you, my best friend.

“ My heart felt condolence to the Herlong family. So sad to see you go my friend. So much richer for having been your friend. Ahh the memories. Shore Acres, Crescent Beach, your 1950 black Ford coupe, the old VW hippie van you sold me, Pedro, defying death on The Oysterman, Cat Lake. Here's to you Sam, me and Joe will see you on the other side.
