“ To all Phil's family & friends. Accept our condolences, he will be greatly missed. Today, I have the last word. Phil had the last word, up to the arrival of Bunny at the Assisted Living. Five minutes after her arrival he relinquished the title. He was the Patriarch of which he worked to earn this title. The story of Phil is a remarkable success..He was a father who produced 6 wonderful daughters which continued to multiply to a clan. He worked long hours to provide a home, food, education and a fine upbringing for his daughters. Phil was honest and had impeccable integrity. You could believe his "handshake" was interpreted as an approval to promise personal or business. He could be depended on. This has been passed on to his children. His legacy can be directed to his success in any of his endeavors. Raising 6 children, president of the Knights of Columbus and General Manager of the Industry of the Blind world-wide, Century Sales, a sales and distribution business to military commissary stores worldwide. He was so proud of his accomplishments with National Industry for the Blind. He was recognized for his accomplishments. He woke up a dormant Congressional Law that directed all military commissary stores to carry and sell merchandise manufactured by the blind..Would you believe he became blind. So long for now Brother. We will meet again. I will hear your final Salute". Arthur Lucier & family.
