“ There are no words of comfort I can offer that will adequately assuage the grief felt by Uncle Phil's passing, so let me instead offer these thoughts. Uncle Phil's personality was a force of nature (as were those of all the extraordinary House family members)! His presence filled a room and made family gatherings in Hopkinton a celebration of warmth, companionship, and closeness our world is so lacking in today. Growing up, Harry was always regaling me with stories of the House Kids misadventures, and I always felt a certain affinity with Uncle Phil's sense of mischief... I wish I had a dime for every time Harry called me "Phil" by accident, I could retire and live off the interest... LOL He will be missed.

“ So sorry for your loss. He was as great a person as his sister Berdina my best friend. It was fun meeting you a couple years ago when we were down in that area for the winter. Hope all your memories of Phil give you all some comfort.

“ I just saw this on Ruth's FB. Our condolences to his family, especially Aunt Lucille Wilson and her girls (my cousins), plus Berdina. I only met him once or twice, but I know the girls thought a lot of him. You all have our sympathy.

“ Uncle Phil will always be that big smile. He was a good man that watched out for others and gave them guidance. I'm sure God is lighting his way.
