“ Phyllis was one of a kind, a true friend, loving with her entire heart and soul. I met her in 1985 while working at a veterinary office in Paradise. We became fast friends and remained so over the years. Our birthdays were close together, we'd have our yearly hours-long catch up chats. After the fire, I couldn't locate her and was frantic. When I finally heard from her, it was such a relief to know my dear Phyllis was safe. After that, I asked her if we should wait until our birthdays to chat again. She said, "No way, we may not be still be here!" Truer words were never spoken. But, I am thankful that we did have a few more phone chats an text messages before she left us. My forever Buddy, Phyllis

“ Coming home from Australia, she and I drove across country to California. I ended up staying in Sacramento for the next 29 years. P was a big part of my early adult life and the lives of my young children, Rachael and Lesley, and their Dad, Craig. We would enjoy massages as she attended classes in Sacramento. We visited her homes in Paradise and Magalia over the years. Through the time I knew Aunt P I was always amazed at her ability to look at things in such an organic way.

My treasure in knowing Aunt P always will be the long conversations on a myriad of topics. Most recently a three hour conversation this summer. She wanted me to visit and I wanted to go. Alas this is not available now, however, I have been given so much from her spiritual nature. Forever in my heart lovely --Be well
