“ In our early years in The Villages, we enjoyed a friendship with Phyllis and Lloyd and our times out together. Later our outings with Phyllis continued and I became closer to her as friends in our red hat chapter. She was a lovely lady whose smile did, indeed, light up a room.

“ Phyllis so enjoyed playing bridge and her favorite partner, Nyme just passed on Thanksgiving Day so now they will be playing together in heaven! We will all miss her and it was a shock that her illness took her so fast but am sure it is also a blessing. Assume one of our family members or friends will enjoy her dog, Cody, however if not let me know as I love dogs and would take good care of her. Sadly, Grace

“ I met Phyllis in 2008 in Grief Share after our husbands (both named Lloyd) passed away. We struggled to recovering together and shared lunch and visits many times afterwards. She was always so cheerful and love her little Cole. My heartfelt wishes go out to her family at this time.
