Obituary of Quinde Smith

Reverend Quinde Ernest Smith 61 of Leesburg went to be with the Lord Saturday, April 5, at his home. He was born in Deland but lived his whole life in Leesburg. He attended Leesburg schools, graduating in 1971. While in high school he was an active member of the band program. He played trumpet in concert band and French horn in marching band. His senior year he was the drum major.

Quinde earned an Associate's Degree in Engineering Design at LSCC. While still in high school he had started working in the glass and mirror business, Smitty's Glass with his dad. He continued that into adulthood. Later, he worked in the restaurant business as an assistant manager at Sambo's and Bonanza restaurants. He worked at Romac Lumber for a time in the 80's, working in the window department and later cabinet department. He struck out on his own from Romac to build and install custom cabinetry in the Isleworth section of Orlando. In 1993, Quinde started teaching cabinet building as a vocational teacher at Lake Correctional Institute in Clermont. He always considered it more than a job, more like a mission. He enjoyed his work there very much. He has taught at LCI now almost 20 years.

Quinde was a very spiritual man. He loved the Lord from an early age. He served the Lord as youth and music director at Main Street Baptist Church of Leesburg in his early adulthood. In 1983, Quinde was called to lead the music for a revival at First Southern Baptist Church in Lady Lake. He realized while there that God was calling him to remain as music director. Three years after that, God called him to be ordained as a minister of the gospel, following in the footsteps of his grandfather, Tom Newman of Seville, FL. Quinde has continued to serve at First Southern Baptist, a total of 31 years.

Quinde was predeceased by his father and mother, Herman E. Smith and Grace Gwendolyn Newman Smith. He leaves behind, his wife of almost 39 years, Wanda, his two brothers, Bruce of Marianna, FL, and Emory of Umatilla, his daughter Alacia Smith of Leesburg, his son James Smith (Amanda) of Tavares, and his beautiful grandchildren Laiona Alyssa Sullivan of Leesburg, Dominik and Charles Smith of Tavares.

A memorial celebration of his life will be held Tuesday, April 8, 6 pm at First Southern Baptist Church 2933 Griffin View Drive, Lady Lake, FL, supper reception following at the church. For those who wish, memorials may be made to First Southern Baptist Church P.O. Box 185 Lady Lake, FL 32159.

“ My deepest sympathies during this time of loss. Mr. Smith was a true Servant Leader. I want to say thank you to the family for allowing the Department of Corrections to be blessed with all the many gifts, talents, wisdom that he selflessly share with everyone he came in contact with. I worked with him for almost three years at Lake CI and he was the go to person if ever there was a need. He did it no questions asked and never complained. There is no way he will ever be replaced. Please know that you all are in my thoughts and prayers. Please be reminded he is home with the Lord and looking down on us. Humbly submitted, Paulette Julien

“ We sorrow not as those who have no hope, but we look forward to the happiest of times, when we shall again meet with our brother around the throne of Glory, and know then, there shall be no more parting. Wanda, as you very well know, God is too wise to make a mistake and too just to do wrong. I pray therefore, that you and your entire family and circle friends will accept God's most perfect will, in His calling home of Quinde, our brother in Christ. May the indwelling Holy Spirit provide you with the comfort promised by Jesus Himself, at this your time of loss. Please know that I care, as do your Leesburg High School Class of 1971 classmates.

“ Quinde was a one-of-a-kind individual. I worked beside him the last 18 months and there was never a dull moment. He literally helped change my opinion about human nature. Quinde was a good, decent man who adored his family. He told me many stories about his family...from his grandparents to his grandchildren. Saying that he will be missed is an understatement. I am grateful for the opportunity to have known him, and his memory and spirit will be everlasting.

“ It is with the greatest of sympathy that I send you my condolences on the loss of this beautiful human being from your life. He has touched so many. He definitely was a man of God in all he did and said. His sense of humor was greatly appreciated. His dedication to his career - this wasn't a job - will be missed. There are not enough words to tell you how sorry I am, what a great man he was, and how much he will be missed. God bless you.

“ I am so sad about Quinde's passing, he was a wonderful man, father and husband. He was also a wonderful first cousin too. I will always remember growing up and going to Leasburg to visit with Quinde, Bruce and Emory. And when they would come and visit in Seville. It was a great time and memories that I cherish. So sad to have to say good by, but what a homecoming he is having with those who have already gone ahead. God bless this family as they grieve.

“ Wanda, I was shocked and saddened to hear about Quinde. It is sad for those left behind and I know the emptiness you must feel. Our only hope is that we will see him again. As we sang so many years ago in "His Generation" about Heaven being a wonderful place. It always seemed like a happy song to me as I never thought about the heartache for the ones that remain here. I am sure my Mom was on the welcoming committee. I will keep you in my prayers during these difficult days.

“ I am deeply saddened & so sorry for your loss as my heart and prayers are with the entire Smith Family. I've had the pleasure of working with Mr. Smith just a few weeks shy of eleven years at Lake C.I and he was truly a ray of light and very dedicated to all. He was always pleasant, humble and full of sincere Godly love. It is and was a true blessing to have met such a wonderful and sincere person who actually loved how God wants us all to love. Mr. Smith was and is a true angel. Always smiling, never complaining and possessing the most beautiful spirit. To be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord. May God comfort you all and give you all strength during this difficult time of loss. God bless.

“ I remember when Quinde first came on board at Lake. He was an immediate standout. In two weeks, it seemed as though he had always been there. I told people that I wished we had 10 more like him. Quinde was a big guy, but his whole was dwarfed by the size of his heart. It was as big as a barn. Quinde became a true friend. I will always remember him with great affection.

“ Wanda, it's been a "few" years (has it really been around 30?!?) since I worked with Quinde at Ro-Mac. He was one of those people whom, if you're very lucky, enter your life & leave a permanent memory. Anyone who ever met Quinde left being a better person. His love of God, you & the kids, his church & life in general was inspirational! He taught me many work related skills, but it was his amazing personality, work ethic, morality & sense of humor that were imbedded in my soul. To this day I laugh every time Def Leppards "Rock of Ages" comes on. He nailed "Gunter Glieben Glausen Globen" back when nobody knew what they were saying! And I still, to this day, use "oh be kay be" that I "borrowed" from his list of expressions. I live in Lady Lake now & looked you guys up, called once but didn't leave a message. I just can't believe this wonderful man is gone. It just shows you we don't know when God will call us home so don't hesitate to reconnect with someone you've lost contact with. Every time I listen to Mercy Me "I Can Only Imagine" I think of my precious Brooke who joined God 7 years ago. Now I'll think of seeing Quinde there, too. Please know you're in my thoughts and prayers. Debbie

“ Quinde Ernest Smith was the first grandchild in the Newman family and how we all looked forward to his birth and his first visit to our town of Seville.And from then to now-we looked forward to his every visit to see us -watching him grow and then start his own family with his love Wanda, We were always so proud of him and all he accomplished in his life overcoming many obstacles from the death of his mother at an early age all the way to overcoming that last stroke and going back to work..His love for the Lord -his church-and his family-he reminded us so much of his Grandpa Newman in all these things along with that sense of humor .We are so going to miss him-but look forward to seeing him and all our family again in Heaven. He will always live in our memory and especially in our hearts. We loved you so much Quinde !
