“ Your Mother, Your Grandmother was my friend. I enjoyed visiting the farm, and meeting and helping Rae and the animals. She opened her gate and her heart to so many... Her generosity and gracious manner will be things we dearly miss. She dearly loved her family, and I could see the difference in her appearance and hear the joy in her voice upon visiting family nearby. Please know so many of us loved Rae for all the goodness and kindness she possessed. My condolences to all of her family and friends.
