“ *We pray to God with gratitude in these moments. Please receive our sincere sympathy and condolences from my wife and children. We say good bye to your husband and it seems that the bells in the whole world are ringing with pain because an extraordinary man that was loved has left.
We admired him, he was a magnificent man. It was an Honor to have met him. Your husband was always respected in every aspect, and we are going to miss him and love him always even if he went first.
My condolences for you and your children.
God bless you,*

“ It is a glorious day, because a righteous man is left to rest, and he will awake when Christ comes back for his chosen ones at a blink of an eye, when the final trumpet sounds.

In a moment , in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet. For the trumpet will sound, and the dead will be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed. 1 Corinthians 15:52

“ Hello Robin, I am sorry to hear about the loss of your dad. I have good memories of him at Leesburg Jr High. He always hid around the corner and caught me and others as we sprinted to the cafeteria after PE class in 8th grade. He never made it more than it was. He was a good man and Principal.

“ What a guy...Mr. Beasley was a true gentleman, teacher, preacher, guide, helper, father,husband and friend to many - many here in town and all over the world.
He helped more people and did more than anyone really knew he did.
He was there to visit you at the hospital; on the street he would give you a hug and a good word or a story; at church, make you feel at home; at school, make you behave (I know many who know that for sure).
Mr. Beasley lived life.
I pray peace for each family member, comfort and may you know there are many praying for you all. Not just at this time, but always.
We have to deal with the tears, the hurt, the sadness...but Mr. Beasley is jumping and singing and resting in the arms of Jesus.
