Obituary of Ralph Meade

Ralph Gregory Meade passed suddenly yet peacefully in his home on August 18th. Born August 1, 1951 in Berkeley CA with wanderlust in his soul, he changed lives from coast to coast.

Too intensely loved to ever be forgotten, Greg is survived by his devoted wife of 32 years, Karen, and his loving children: daughters Jennifer and Sonja Meade, and sons, Jesse (Janelle) Meade, Sean (Brandy) Meade, Jason (Karen) Chandler, Gregory Wells, and Bobby Wells. He is also survived by his brother Daniel (Linda) Pinkham, numerous grand-children, great-grandchildren, nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his parents Ralph and Betty (Sands) Meade and brother James Pinkham.

Greg was an altruistic man who had always practiced compassion and forgiveness which shaped the lives of his children of whom he was so fiercely proud. He always encouraged and supported his children's own adventures and they would not be where they are today if not for his guidance and love. A loyal friend, father and husband, he will continue to live in our hearts and memories for eternity.

Life is not forever; Love is.

“ Ralph Gregory Meade, was my father and he was a great father. Later in life I realized the struggles he struggled with and the decisions he made. I learned everything from this man and have been very successful in life. I try to be as good as a father he was to us kids. Always taking us camping, swimming, walks, events, holidays.... He was always there with such a kind heart. Miss you dad.

“ My condolences to the entire family. Greg, Karen, Jen, Sean and Brandy were neighbors of mine in Texas. They were the best neighbors a person could have. Greg was always very nice and caring along with the rest of his family. RIP sweet man. You will be missed. Tammy, Craig & Brian Cromie
