Obituary of Randall Ericson

Randall G. Ericson, 71, formerly of Schererville, Indiana, departed this life after a valiant battle with cancer. His undaunted spirit and gratitude for life never succumbed to disease. He esteemed his friends above himself. He enriched his family with love and wisdom. He graduated from this life with his eyes fixed on Jesus.

Born in Chicago, Illinois on May 11, 1945, he went home to Heaven on December 13, 2016 from The Villages, Florida.

He served as a medic in Vietnam as part of the 51st Medical Division during the years 1964 - 1965. Upon returning from war, he became a licensed plumber in Chicago. After giving his life to the Lord in 1971, he put his skills to use in the Lord's work. As a member of First Baptist Church of Hammond, he served on staff as the head of maintenance for 39 years. He served as a fervent and faithful Sunday school teacher to 2nd grade boys for 45 years. His life can be summed up as a faithful servant who used the tools he was given to invest in the lives of others. He never wanted to minister to thousands, but at the end of his life, he did reach thousands. He just did it one person at a time.

He was preceded in death by his parents: Raymond N. and Angeline T. Ericson; brother: Barry Ericson, and brother-in-law: Tom Janel. He is survived by his beloved wife, Adrienne; daughters: Jessica (Travis) Bradley of Charleston, WV, and Joy (David) Jorgensen of Dawsonville, GA; 12 grandchildren: Autumn, Travis, Caleb, Kayla, Angelia, Hannah, Curtis, Luke, and Faith Bradley, and Kenton, Nolan, and Corban Jorgensen; and a loving sister: Carole Janel of Oak Lawn, IL.
