“ After one of our many trips to the ER at AdventHealth in Zephyrhills, I went to get the car so they could wheel him out thru the exit. The car was facing a wall with a sign. Ray gets in the car, I help him fasten his seat belt, he hasn't said a word, no thank you, no get me home, just this. He looks at the sign on the wall and says "That sign isn't level." If you knew Ray, you understood this story.
