“ Today my "Pappy" passed away. He fought a long hard battle but just could not make it for another round. He was worn out and so weak and weary. Thankfully, His suffering is over now and he can rest peacefully. He left us with so many memories and made so many friends. He was so loved, and always will be. I cannot thank him enough for all he gave me and taught me in my life and for the wonderful 50 years he spent married to my Mother. A kid could not ask for a better father, role model, and teacher. I will do my best to carry on his legacy and honor him in every way I possibly can. He will be sorely missed by all that knew him. He's one of a kind! I Love you pappy! I miss you already!! May Peace be with you... as you climb that tree stand in the sky, taste the sweetest honey, and fish in the most beautiful seas you could imagine.
